Alexandria Gazette

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 27.

THE FARMER'S INDEPENDENCE. - While the manufacturing and commercial world is passing through a crisis called by the name of hard times, the farming fraternity is filled with plenty and is blessed in basket and store. The farmers are not the ones who are gazetted in the weekly list of failures. Their homes are the centres of abundance and peace. They can stay quietly within them and defy the storms that regularly sweep through the world of trade. And these times are impressing this truth deeply on the popular mind. To own and cultivate a few acres is wealth indeed compared with the actual dependence on another for work to feed the family. The man on the land is at no other man's call. He is his own master to the end. He is a citizen to be respected and consulted in the neighborhood where he dwells, and with proper thrift, coupled with industry, he will ever be fortunate and happy .- Mass. Ploman.

Bayard told Nevada Jones an anecdote of the late Thaddeus Stevens. When questioned why he insisted so resolutely that there should be thirteen articles of impeachment against Andrew Johnson, Stevens replied :-"I only want an odd number, so as to get John Sherman's vote. He will be sure to vote for six and against six; but if we have thirteen we shall catch him on the odd one, sure."-Cin. Enq.

In Brooklyn, Sunday evening, while John Connolly was playing with his little son, aged fourteen months, who was in his lap, he playfully blew a puff of tobacco smoke in his face. The child coughed and gasped for breath and fell back ucconscious. In a few minutes it died from suffocation. The father is almost wild with grief.
